Things you need to know about NEAs. Do's and Don'ts

Stay steady – remember as you go through the year:

- Do:
  - Keep your work private so it cannot be copied.
  - Reference work taken from published sources (books or internet).
  - Include a bibliography.
  - Speak to your teacher or Mrs Mockridge if you suspect another student has copied your work.
- Don't:
  - Share your work with any other student for any reason.
  - Don't post work on social media. Exam boards monitor these sites.
  - Don't pass someone else's work of as your own. Reference it.
  - Do not, on any account, use AI.

Referencing

- If you want to quote material taken from a published sources (books or the internet) you can do so as long as you reference it:
  - For material taken from a book you should include the name of the author, the year of publication and the page number.
    For example, Morrison, 2008, page 35.
  - For material taken from the internet you should include the date the material was downloaded and the precise web page (not the search engine). This can be copied from the web address line.
    For example,
    http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/16/sosteacher/history/49766.shtml.

Be exam smart

Succeed

- Make sure you have breakfast and arrive in good time.
- You are under exam regulations as soon as you enter the room.
- That means you must be silent and must not communicate with other students.
- Your name card is on your timetable.
- Equipment must be loose or in a clear pencil case.
- No mobile phones, ipods, watches, smart glasses, MP3/4 players or similar devices, air pods, earphones or ear buds.
- No notes.
- Water only in clear bottles with no labels.
- Calculator must be non-programmable. The memory must be cleared. Covers left in bags.
- No correcting pens or erasable pens.
- Do not borrow equipment from others.
- You must not complete the front of your papers or open your paper until told to do so.

Ask for help

- Don’t be afraid to ask for help if you have any questions or anxieties. You can ask:
  - Your tutor
  - Your teacher
  - Your Head of Year
  - Mrs Mockridge
- Mrs Mockridge or your tutors can provide replacement timetables if needed.

Good luck – be amazing – show us what you can do!
